MANY CAMPUSES, ONE MISSION: SERVING FAMILIES IN WEST AFRICA SINCE

1961

THE DAKAR ACADEMY DIFFERENCE

Qualified teachers invest their time and talents to design engaging lessons that bring content to life. The goal: for students to understand—not only know—what they are being taught, as they set their feet on the path to lifelong learning.

INDIVIDUALIZED LEARNING

DA Schools are committed to helping each student find success. That's why we offer the following programs:

- English Language Learners (ELL)
- Speech Language Pathology (English)
- Special Education
- Clinical Counseling

WELCOME TO COMMUNITY

DA Schools' flagship campus was established in 1961 as the first international and Christian school in Dakar. Today it is a U.S. college-preparatory, boarding and day school for grades Pre-K3 through 12, situated on a six-acre campus in Hann Maristes. Opened in 2019, DA West is the only fully American program in West Dakar, offering PreK3 to grade 7. In 2022, DA South will open in Popenguine on the Petite Côte of Senegal.

AN AFFORDABLE INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION THAT GOES BEYOND THE CLASSROOM...

West Campus welcomes students from around the world with diverse backgrounds and experiences. Here, students learn about other cultures and share their own through annual events celebrating International diversity. Small class sizes mean each student will be seen, heard and valued on an individual level.

NEW FACILITIES

West Campus was built in 2019 and features a new auditorium, library, classrooms spaces, playground and sports courts.

AFTER-SCHOOL WORKSHOPS

Offering a variety of activities including arts, athletics, academics and more.

FRENCH PROGRAM

Parlez-vous français? As part of DA's curriculum, all students receive language study through our strong French Program.

FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS

DA West is a place for makers, doers, thinkers, and creators. Students receive weekly courses in music and art where they are guided to develop new skills.

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

We bring learning to you. Through a courier service, students have access to Central Campus's library—the largest English language collection in West Africa with over 20,000 items available.
